

Accreditation / Membership

New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEASC)

St. Johnsbury Academy Jeju is fully accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEASC). NEASC is the oldest accreditation agency in the United States, responsible for the accreditation of thousands of prestigious schools and universities, such as SJA Vermont and Harvard University.

College Board

The College Board is an American private nonprofit corporation that was formed in 1900 to expand access to higher education. The College Board develops and administers standardized tests (SAT, AP, TOFEL) as well as curricula used by K-12 and post-secondary education institutions to promote college-readiness and as part of the college admissions process. St. Johnsbury Academy Jeju is a proud member of the College Board.

1. St. Johnsbury Academy Jeju is an official AP Testing Center.
2. St. Johnsbury Academy Jeju is an official SAT Testing Center.

East Asia Regional Council of Overseas Schools

EARCOS is the largest regional organization of international schools in the world. It was organized to promote instructional development within schools in East Asia. St. Johnsbury Academy Jeju is a proud member of EARCOS.

National Association for College Admission Counseling

The NACAC, founded in 1937 in the USA, is an organization of more than 13,000 professionals from around the world dedicated to serving students transitioning from secondary to postsecondary education. St. Johnsbury Academy Jeju is a proud member of NACAC.

International Association For College Admission Counseling

The IACAC is an affiliate regional organization representing overseas counselors. Its membership is made up of nearly 600 professionals from around the world who advise students as they make choices about pursuing postsecondary education. St. Johnsbury Academy Jeju is a proud member of IACAC.

WIDA International School Consortium

WIDA is an International School Consortium for schools teaching English as an additional language. The WIDA International School Consortium is a community of accredited, PreK-12 international schools that use WIDA's research-based standards and assessments. The Consortium provides access to resources, research and reciprocal learning opportunities with other member schools. St. Johnsbury Academy Jeju is a proud member of the WIDA International School Consortium.

The Principals Training Center

The Principals Training Center serves the unique professional learning needs of practicing and aspiring principals, teachers, teacher leaders, counselors, and governance members in international schools worldwide. St. Johnsbury Academy Jeju is a proud member of the Principals Training Center.

The Critical Thinking Consortium

The Critical Thinking Consortium is a non-profit Vancouver-based educational group. The Critical Thinking Consortium (TC2) provides professional development training at St. Johnsbury Academy Jeju for critical thinking and inquiry based learning. Inquiry based learning is a foundational pillar of St. Johnsbury Academy Jeju. St. Johnsbury Academy Jeju is a proud member of the The Critical Thinking Consortium.

KORCOS

KORCOS, created in 1973 with only two member schools, has become the largest organization for international educators in South Korea with more than 30 member schools and educational institutions. Total registered professionals from all those institutions are now more than 1,600 members. As the oldest professional association of international educators in the country, KORCOS hopes to grow by watching the constant changes on the environment, technology, and educational programs in the country.

ASSOCIATION for the ADVANCEMENT of
INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION

The Association for the Advancement of International Education (AAIE)

The Association for the Advancement of International Education (AAIE) is a not-for-profit association of international schools around the world promoting exemplary school leadership and research-based, effective and innovative educational practices. As an autonomous organization, AAIE was legally incorporated in 1966 with a mandate to further and continuously improve international education and cultural understanding across independent overseas schools. AAIE serves a diverse global community providing leadership development across the ever-changing and expanding spectrum of educational programming initiatives and issues.

